

EXTREME PRESENTATION METHOD

Testimonials

The Extreme Presentation method is a high impact approach to delivering powerful presentations that really deliver results. The clear and logical methodology, combined with well researched tools enabled me to engage with a large audience in a way I have never been able to do before. I engaged Justin O'Brien from HPPG to assist me in preparing for a presentation to an audience of 150 people recently and the results were astounding. I have never received so many compliments about my presentation and interest in my topic. Justin's 1:1 coaching on the extreme presentation method was key to engaging the audience and maintaining their interest over the course of 45 minutes. I am now looking at how we can incorporate extreme presentation method in to how we present and pitch to clients. October 2010

Having worked in the learning and development field for over 15 years, I would like to consider myself experienced and well versed in presentation design and development, however the Extreme Presentation was a real eye opener for me! The Extreme Presentation method is the perfect antidote to the ever growing PowerPoint obsession and encourages you to focus on the real purpose of your presentation - providing a solution to a problem. With its 10 steps, the Extreme Presentation technique is an accessible discipline for anyone whose work involves presentations

As a result of completing the Extreme Presentation workshop, I have profoundly changed the way I go about putting a presentation or other documents together. I would recommend this workshop to anyone who is involved in the design and development of presentations and other documents

The Extreme Presentations Method is a powerful process and an essential course for anyone who needs to communicate ideas, strategies or processes. This is the first program I have encountered which guarantees to connect the presenter with the audience before even uttering the first word. I have used the skills that I learned in this course to change the way that I present and have seen an immediate improvement. The audience 'gets it' faster and 'gets it' better. Speakers, trainers and facilitators will be left behind if they don't take time to learn these skills.

The resounding chorus that I heard from my team was that they had never attended a training class as powerful and useful as Dr. Abela's Extreme Presentation training. He expertly wove all elements together - the audience, the story, the presentation of the story - and backed it up with reams of research from all disciplines.
